

Special events:

Losar (Tibetan New Year): Sunday, February 14

- 10:00-11:30 AM pujas and prayers: Palden Sakya, 4 W. 101 St. #63, NYC
- 1:00 PM Dharma get-together for prayer and pot luck lunch

Held at the home of Carola van den Houten: 2211 Broadway, #7A, NYC

RSVP: paldensakya@vikramasila.org and email what you would like to bring. Guest list required.

Chötrul Düchen: Sunday, February 28 / All day pujas and prayers

10:00-5:00 PM pujas and prayers: Palden Sakya, 4 W. 101 St. #63, NYC

Also known as Chonga Choepa or the Butter Lamp Festival, is one of the four festivals commemorating four events in the life of the Buddha, according to Tibetan traditions. Chötrul Düchen closely follows Losar, the Tibetan New Year. This festival celebrates the Buddha's display of miracles for fifteen days in order to bolster the devotion of disciples.